

A special rate has been arranged by the organizing committee at five hotels in the centre of Antwerp. Walking distances are specified to the Icoria venue. We ask you to make your reservation directly with the hotel. Please identify yourself as a participant of the ICORIA 2008 conference in order to benefit from the special rates available for conference participants. The number of available rooms at each hotel are limited, so please book your rooms as soon as possible, as they will be assigned on a “first come, first serve” basis!
